Policy Statement

1. No advertising materials of a political nature, whether elections or general is permitted on any lands controlled by the Shire –
  - “advertising materials” includes materials –
    - relating to a Commonwealth, State, local or organisation election erected for or on behalf of a political party or candidate,
    - identifying or are promoted by a political party
    - attempting to influence for political purposes but does not include –
      - notices of impending elections
      - notification of right to vote, closure of enrolment, directions to polling station etc
  - “lands” includes –
    - road reserves
    - recreation or other reserves
    - land owned in freehold
2. Political and election advertising materials erected on Shire controlled lands will be removed by the Shire, without prior notice to the advertiser, and an invoice raised for costs of removal at private works rates, with a minimum charge for half an hour.

– End of Policy

COMMENT

The Goldfields Highway is under the control of Main Roads WA and not the Shire. If Main Roads WA requested removal of materials, part 2 would still apply as it becomes a private works request by Main Roads WA.
