

Menzies is a mining town in the goldfields, 730kms north east of Perth and 132kms north of Kalgoorlie. The Shire of Menzies covers a total area of 125,000 square kms and has annual revenue of approximately $1.4million. There is a total population of approximately 400 people with 150 of those living in town. The town of Kookynie is the sister town within the Shire's boundaries and consists of approximately 12 full time residents and the well-known Grand Hotel. About 150 residents live at the Tjuntjuntjara Community in the Great Victorian Desert approximately 700kms east of Menzies near the South Australian border.